SYNCING: WHY DO YOU WANT TO?

- To Share your
 - Browser bookmarks
 - MUSIC
 - BOOKS
 - APPS
 - Contacts/calendars/email/notes/photographs
- ON ALL YOUR DIFFERENT DEVICES:
 - IPHONE, IPAD, COMPUTER

METHODS OF SYNCING

- USE iCloud
 - If you have apple devices sharing an apple ID
 - Photostream is same, but separate
 - It's a wireless method of uploading content to the "cloud" and then streaming it from there to your other device.
- USE iTunes
 - If you have a PC and want to Sync your iPad with it.
 - Sync with an USB cord or sync wirelessly if both devices are on same wireless network.

HOWEVER YOU CAN USE BOTH METHODS TOGETHER!

What Cloud Storage Is

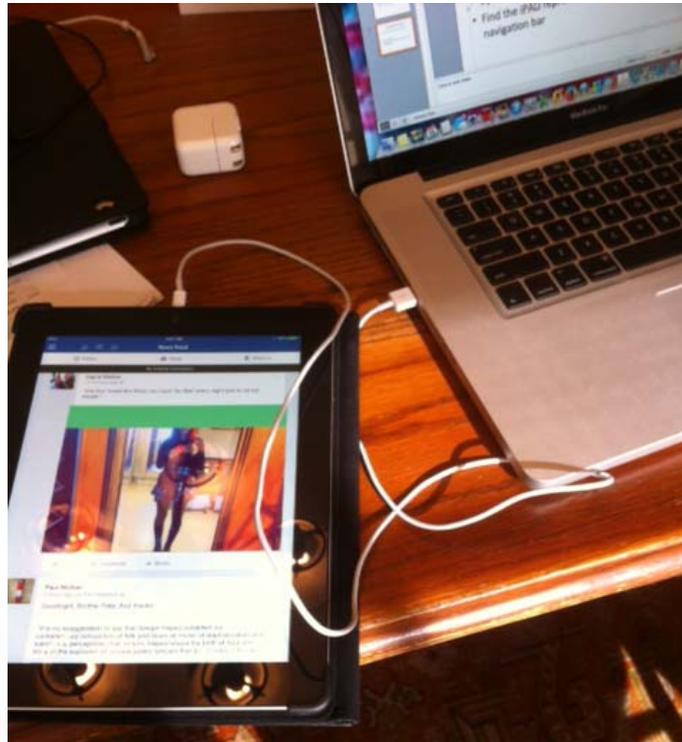

SYNCING: PART 1

WORKING WITH iTUNES

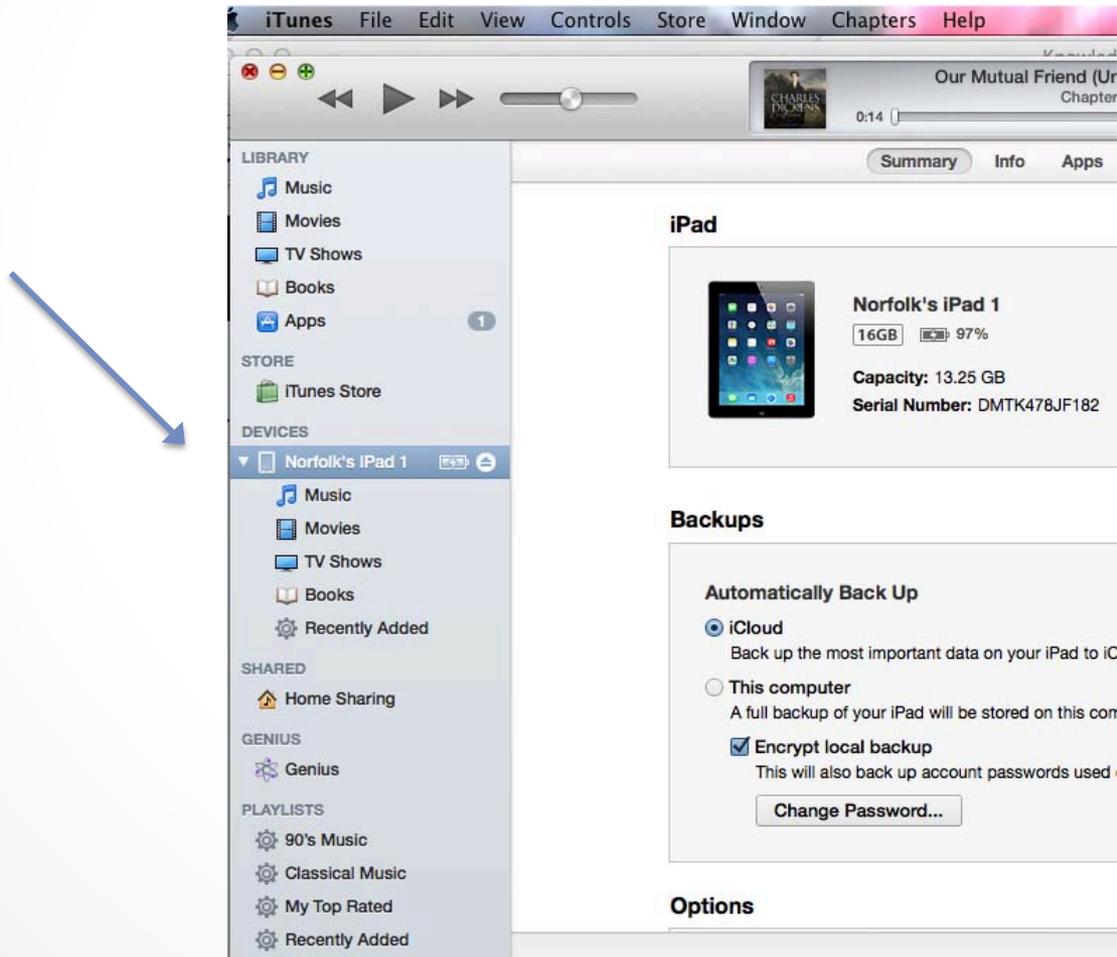

Syncing with iTUNES

- If you haven't already done so, download iTUNES
- Plug iPad into computer with a USB cord

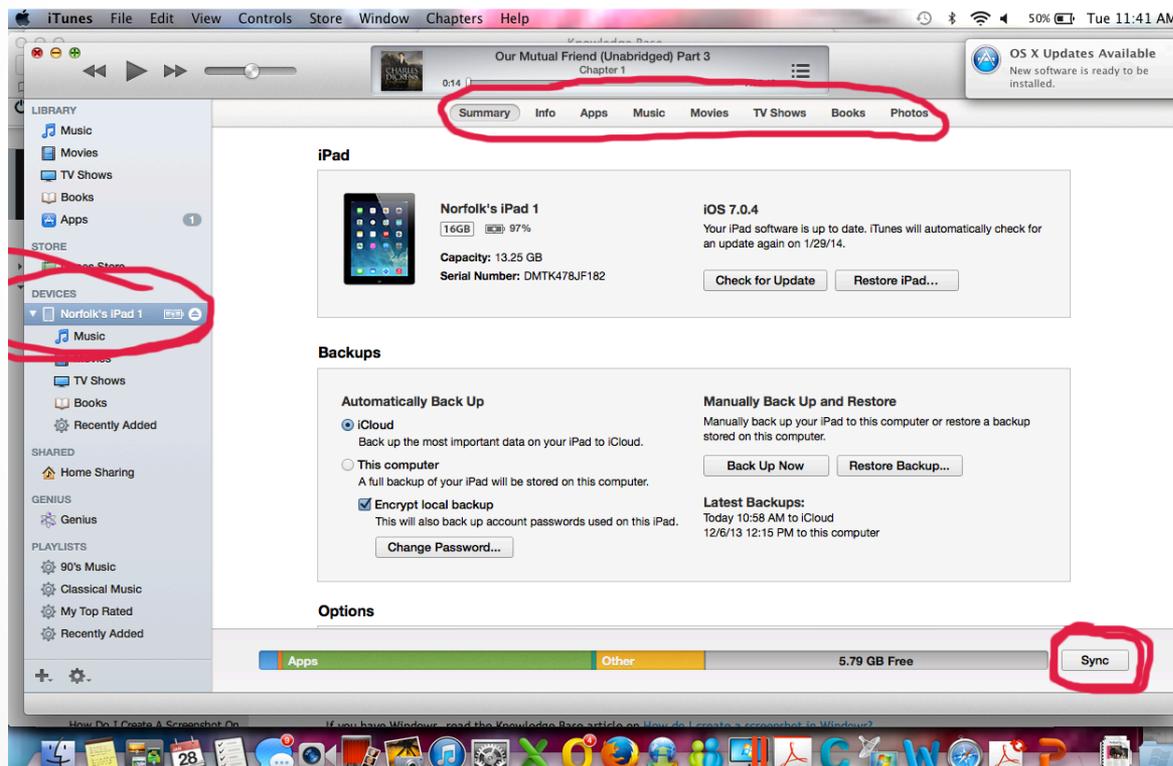

Syncing with iTunes 2

- Open up iTunes
- Find iPad represented in left hand navigation

Syncing with iTunes 3

- Click on the name of your iPad to set-up iTUNES syncing for apps, music, movies, TV Shows, Books & Photos

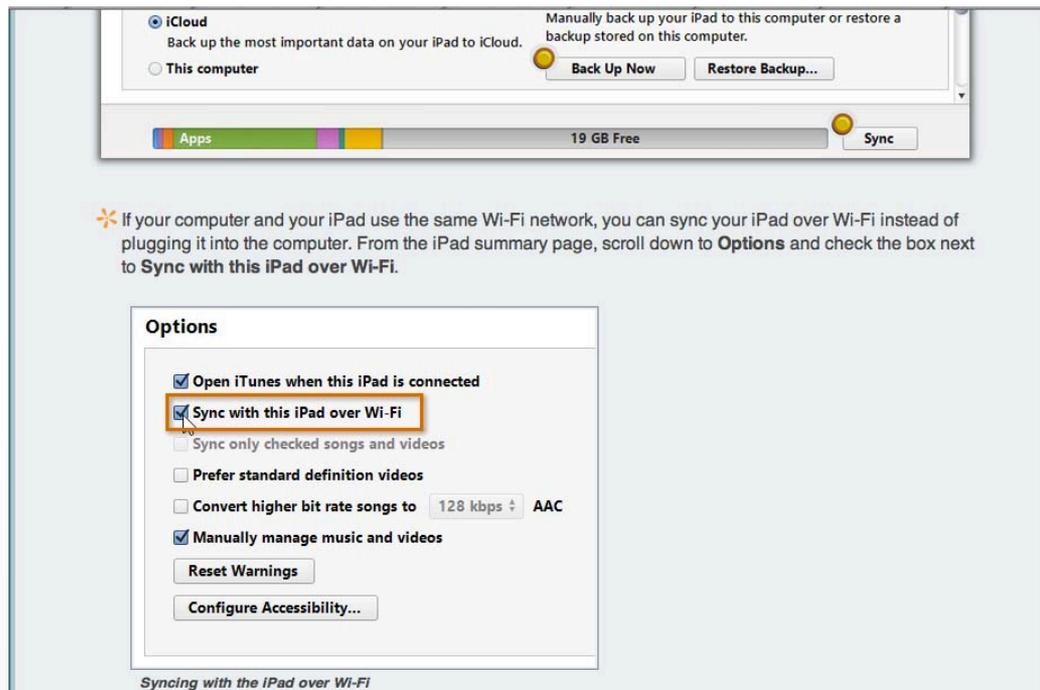

TIP

- If you are using a PC, iTUNES is the method to use to sync with your apple devices.

Alternately: Sync Wirelessly with iTunes

- If your devices are both on the same wifi network simultaneously navigate to iPad in iTunes click summary tab on top navigation bar and scroll down to options to enable this feature.

SYNCING: PART 2

WORKING WITH iCloud

Syncing with iCloud

iCloud allows the user to access the same information on any of their apple devices, as long as they are using the same appleID.

With iCloud you can sync...

- Mail
- Contacts
- Calendars
- Reminders
- Safari (web browsing)
- Notes
- Keychain
- Photos (through photostream)
- Documents and data

To set up iCloud...

- On your home screen, tap “settings”
- On the left hand side, tap “iCloud”
- Fill in your appleID and password, then tap “Sign in”.

From there, you can turn on and off whatever you would like to sync.

REMEMBER TO SET-UP iCloud ON ALL YOUR APPLE DEVICES
SO THAT YOU CAN SYNC THEM TOGETHER

Your Can Use iCloud and iTunes together...

Not only can iCloud allow easy access to important information such as contacts and email, it can also sync your music, apps and books.

This way, no matter what your device, you can enjoy all entertainment as long as you have a wifi connection!

Using iTunes and iCloud together cont.

- In settings, tap on “iTunes & App Store”
- Fill in your AppleID and password
- From there, you can choose what you would like to show up under your Music, Video or Bookshelf.

TIP:

You can also activate “Automatic Downloads.” This will make whatever music, apps or books you buy download immediately to every device using your Apple ID, once you turn that device on.

We recommend you don't do this, because the more you download, the less storage room your device will have!
